B4EU
European University Alliance:
What It's All About

The 1st episode has launched!

BAUHAUS4EU Podcast takes you inside a European University Alliance committed to building resilient, inclusive, sustainable, and beautiful regions. Through diverse episodes, discover the Alliance's vision, values, and objectives, gain insights into key events, and listen to interviews with students, academic and administrative staff.

A new episode is released every month, produced by one of the Alliance's partner universities. The first episode was recorded at the University of Economics in Katowice, our host Marek Kiczka chats with Edyta Lachowicz-Santos, Institutional Coordinator of BAUHAUS4EU, about studying and working across borders, regional engagement, future skills, and what makes the Alliance unique. Co-designing Future Education: the BAUHAUS4EU Regional Workshop in Bergamo

On December 9, 2025, the University of Bergamo hosted the BAUHAUS4EU Regional Workshop, titled "Co-design of future educational offerings: territorial challenges and education innovation priorities".

The event brought together local partners, businesses, and universities to shape the future of education. It focused on bridging the skills gap, strengthening university-business collaboration, and creating innovative, inclusive, and territory-rooted learning models. Know more here!

UE Katowice launches a Teleporter as part of the BAUHAUS4EU teaching system connecting partner universities

The University of Economics in Katowice officially launched the Teleporter on December 8, 2025 — a modern, modular system supporting hybrid education. This is part of a joint investment within the B4EU project, in which each of the ten partner universities receives an identical, fully compatible setup.

This will enable inter-university classes, joint workshops, consultations, and collaborative projects, effectively creating one "extended campus" operating across national borders. Find out more here!

The B4EU Alliance closes 2025 with great achievements

December was a month filled with important milestones that highlighted our progress. The BAUHAUS4EU Alliance made significant advances in the digital platform (MS3), education and training offers (MS7), innovative education (MS8), gap identification (MS10), and student support (MS11). All these achievements reflect the hard work and dedication of everyone involved. Check out our progress and outcomes and be engaged with our milestones here!
